About Me

I am currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in Computer Science Engineering (CSE) at Narula Institute of Technology ,Agarpara (NiT) , where I have developed a strong foundation in JAVA, DSA, DP. I have actively participated in various projects and coursework, including IoT , Django and Python based projects and several beyond curriculum training(BCT). My passion for software industry and software engineering drives me to continuously learn and apply new knowledge. I am eager to bring my developing skills and my enthusiasm for software industry to a dynamic team.
